Dodgers Appoint Jeff Sharpe VP of Player Recruitment & Development

The Oshawa Dodgers are thrilled to announce the appointment of Jeff Sharpe as Vice President of Player Recruitment and Development. Sharpe has an extensive baseball resume including coaching with Ajax Minor Baseball and managing the 2001 Ontario Under 18 Team. Jeff is no stranger to the Intercounty Baseball League. In 2004 he coached first base for the Barrie Baycats, taking over as field manger in the following season where he led the team to its 1st and only IBL championship. Jeff was voted Intercounty's top manager in 2005 & 2006. "The Dodgers are ecstatic to have such a quality baseball mind join our organization," says Dodgers President Lori May. "Jeff's renowned recruiting skills and knowledge of the league is just what the Dodgers need to take us to the next level."
